CROSS-WORD PUZZLE 133

When the correct letters are placed in this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "Horizontal" defines a word which will all the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "Vertical" defines a word which will fill the white spaces to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

SUMMER

First Season's Lumber Job Completed—Peeling Pulp Wood.

Friday, July 21, at ten o'clock, A. M. the whistle at the Tibbets mill sounded good and loud, not as a fire signal, but to signify that they had finished a very successful season's work for the first spring in this locality.

They began sawing April 11th and they saved twelve hundred cords of white birch, beech, rock maple and white oak into piles and downed stock here in the Thompson pasture, and the mill was not down for more than five hours for repairs. Upon the whole job, this speaks pretty well for the foreman, Mr. Kemiston, who set the mill up last fall, also had charge of the whole outfit all the spring. One does not have to say that he had an able crew of millmen but rather say they were a steady and industrious lot of boys all ways on the job, quiet and gentlemanly at home and abroad and all wish their return next spring.

There were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kimball, who did the cooking for the crew and took care of the boarding house, who made many pleasant calls and are the best of company, and we also look ahead for their return in the spring.

Many of the farmers have begun haying but are having poor weather and there are many acres of good hay lying flat through several days of wet weather.

The Brown & Hammond saw mill finished sawing Wednesday the 19th, and Mr. Hammond is going to do his haying and then it is said that they are going to move their mill to Canton Point. It is a smart little mill.

DAVID AND JONATHAN

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 18:1-4; 19:1-7.
GOLDEN TEXT—There is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Two Good Friends.
JUNIOR TOPIC—David and Jonathan.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Choosing the Right Kind of Friends.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Obligations of Friendship.

than has become immortalized in the world's thought. It was unique in that it occurred between two men of rival worldly interests. Jonathan was the crown prince, the heir to the throne. David was heir according to the divine choice and arrangement. Jonathan knew this and magnanimously waived his natural personal rights to the one he knew God had chosen.

1. Friendship Established Between David and Jonathan (1 Sam. 18:1-4).
2. Love at Sight (vv. 5-27).

Following the interview of Saul and David after the victory over Goliath Jonathan's soul was knit with that of David. He loved him as his own soul. While there was mutual love, the pleasing trait stands out more prominently in Jonathan than in David. He meant great loss to him-the loss of the throne; while it meant immense gain to David, the acquisition of the throne to which he had no natural right.

2. Covenant established (vv. 3, 4)
Following the love covenant the of his court robe and his equipment and gave them to David. This was a virtual abdication of the throne to David.

11. Jonathan Defended David Against Saul's Frenzy (I Sam. 19:1-7)

David went into the battle with Goliath out of zeal for God and the religion—not for personal glory, for it turned out as always that because he made God first, God honored him. Upon David's return from victory, according to the entail custom he was met by a triumphal chorus of women from all cities of Israel chanting praises to him for his victory over their enemies. They ascribed more praise and honor to David than to Saul. These women which had been slumbering in heart and moved him twice to attempt to kill David. This wickedness in his heart as a bitter feeling, this occasion fanned it into a flame, making it a burning passion of evil.

Jonathan defended him before the king and evoked from him the promise that David should not be slain. Thus exposed himself to the anger of his infuriated father for David's sake. Jonathan Revealed to David

The beginning of the new movement was celebrated by sacrifices and feasts at which all the members of the family were expected to be present.

David's excuse for not attending was that he might go home to attend the yearly sacrifice of the entire tribe. The annual feast was more important than the monthly feast. Matters were now so serious that Jonathan and David renewed the covenant.
